Probe of Deal by Convict Is Ordered

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Convict Kimble Berry, claiming he was freed to recover the loot from a $519,000 burglary, touched off reactions in Mississippi that reached into the governor's office and the halls of the legislature.

Berry, 24, from Greenville, Miss. told officers in Lynn, Mass. where he was arrested, that he was given $20, a gun and a car to recover the cash and securities stolen last May from the Fairchild Construction Co. of Hattiesburg, Miss.

Gov. Ross Barnett ordered an investigation Wednesday of the state penitentiary to check Berry's claim.

Rep. Richard Arrington offered a resolution asking the governor to pardon Berry on condition Berry would return by Mississippi and testify under oath about the conditions surrounding his release.

There were indications in Lynn that Berry would fight moves to return him to Mississippi.

The House voted 67-33 to send Arrington's proposals to the Rules Committee.

Arrington said if the story were true, the state needed to know it while it was false it was a reflection on several citizens whose names had been cleared.

Attorney Frank E. Riley said he has been unable to raise bail for Berry. A spokesman for bonding companies said bondsmen are not interested because Berry fled from Mississippi and they are afraid he might flee again.

Over 3 Million Visited Parks

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Publicity and Parks Commission reported today that attendance at state parks topped the three million mark for the first time in 1961.

Bryan Stearns, parks director, said the total attendance was 3,378,350, compared to 2,992,800 last year. The increase was 13 per cent.

The park with the largest use was, as usual, Petit Jean, which had 567,430 visitors, an increase of 8 per cent. The largest percentage increase (20) was at Buffalo River where visitors totaled 242,400.

Park use was up 18 per cent at Lake Chicot, 15 per cent at Lake Catherine, Mount Nebo and Bull Shoals and 12 per cent at Devil's Den and Daisy.

Portugal Had Time Getting a UN Seat

By MAX HARRELSON
Chief AP U.N. Correspondent
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (P)

Portugal had a tough time getting into the United Nations. Now, after six years of membership, it is talking about getting out.

Repeated vetoes by the Soviet Union, starting in 1946, shoved aside the Lisbon government's applications for membership. Admission finally came in 1955—10 years after the organization was set up—as part of a package deal which brought in new members with divergent outlooks.

The six years of membership have been so stormy that few diplomats here were surprised when Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar let it be known Wednesday that "Portugal will surely be among the first countries" to quit the U.N. He set no date, however.

No nation ever has resigned from the U.N.

A poor relationship between Portugal and a majority of the United Nations virtually ruled out any possibility of U.N. action to help the Salazar government when India seized Goa last month. There was so little sympathy among Asian and African countries.

4 Children Awarded $90,102

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — Lee Mode, a former Conway contractor sentenced to prison for the slaying of Delbert L. Russell, was assessed $90,102 in civil damages Wednesday.

The judgement was entered by Circuit Judge Audrey Strait of Morrilton in behalf of the 36-year-old Russell's four minor children. Mode, who was not present, filed a brief, four-line denial of the allegations last Nov. 1.

Fifteen witnesses appeared Wednesday for the plaintiffs. At the time of his death, Oct. 13, 1958, Russell had a $300,000 alienation of affection suit pending against Mode.

The suit alleged Mode had paid undue attention to Russell's wife. Russell was shot to death on a downtown Conway street.

Mode, who is free under bond, was twice convicted of the slaying but his first conviction was overturned by the Arkansas Supreme Court.

A second conviction, which is on appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court, was upheld by the high state court.

In awarding the assessment Wednesday, Strait set $90,900 for loss of parental guidance and the loss of the father's contribution.

Another $11,000 was awarded for the mother's loss of affection, $22,500 for mental anguish, $25,000 punitive damages and $702 for funeral expenses.

The suit was filed Jan. 15, 1959 by the Russell children's grandmother, Mrs. Clyde Russell Barnett.

Propaganda Backfires on Russians

MOSCOW (AP)—A photograph distributed by the Soviet government as evidence in its charges against West German Gen. Adolf Heusinger gave Moscow propaganda chiefs red faces today.

Foreign Ministry officials declined immediate comment when told a photograph they had distributed—purporting to show Nazi soldiers burying a Russian village at Heusinger's order—was actually one the Soviet government had previously issued of Japanese soldiers burning a Chinese village.

"We will investigate," they said. It was one of the biggest propaganda slipups in recent years.

The news reached Moscow in the issue of the West German magazine Stern dated Jan. 7. It was confirmed here by reference to the original document.

At a news conference Dec. 12, the Soviet government demanded that the United States turn Gen. Heusinger over to the Soviet Union for trial on war criminal charges. Heusinger, 64, was chief of operations of the German general staff until 1944, chief architect of the postwar West German army and now is chairman of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization permanent military committee in Washington.

The United States denounced the charges as a "crude propaganda maneuver."

JFK to Leave Florida, Work on Security

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy switched plans today and decided to end his Florida sojourn Friday, a day ahead of schedule. He scheduled weekend conferences at the White House on legislative and security problems.

The Palm Beach White House said Kennedy will meet with Chairman Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee Saturday morning.

Press secretary Pierre Salinger said the President also will have other appointments that day, primarily with staff assistants, before flying to Columbus, Ohio, to speak at a fund-raising dinner honoring Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

Kennedy has engagements Sunday with Director John A. McCone of the Central Intelligence Agency and Gen. Lucius D. Clay, his personal representative in crisis-laden Berlin.

Today Kennedy dropped other business and concentrated on weaving together his State of the Union message—his accounting to Congress of what shape the country is in and what he thinks should be done about it.

Kennedy originally had planned to remain in Palm Beach until Saturday afternoon and fly direct to Columbus. Now his timetable calls for taking off by presidential jet Friday at 4 p. m., landing about two hours later at Andrews Air Force Base, Md.

He will be out of Washington only about 6½ hours for the speaking date in Columbus, according to the present schedule. He expects to leave the capital at 4:30 p. m. and return at about 11 p. m., heading back directly from the Democratic function.

Salinger said Kennedy will cut a day off his Florida stay because he wishes to work on business in Washington.

Mills occupies a critical position as far as Kennedy's legislative program is concerned. Inevitably, the Saturday morning get-together will bear on the administration's medical care, tax and trade proposals—all of which are Ways and Means Committee business.

Salinger said Kennedy will meet with congressional leaders early next week. Congress reconvenes Wednesday, and Kennedy is expected to deliver his State of the Union message Thursday or Friday.

Details of the meeting with congressional leaders, including arrangements for bringing in the Republican opposition, are still being worked out, Salinger added.

Bolling Makes Way for Albert, Split Prevented

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP) — With-

drawal of Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo., from the race for majority leader and tentative approval of a new policy committee have averted a possible session-opening split among House Democrats.

Bolling's statement Wednesday that he would not seek the majority leadership being vacated by Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts left next week's caucuses of House Democrats without a controversial issue.

It cleared the way for unanimous selection of Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma as the party floor leader to succeed McCormack, who has no party opposition to replace the late Sam Rayburn as speaker.

McCormack's election at the initial House session next Wednesday may not even be contested by Republicans. Whether the GOP will go through with the formality of nominating Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana for speaker may not be decided until early next week.

In any event, Halleck would have no chance of election, the vote traditionally being along straight party lines.

Bolling had the support of some House liberals when he announced last November that he would seek the majority leadership. However, not enough colleagues rallied behind his standard and he pulled

U. S. Believes Million Dollar Offer Story

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department says it believes the strange story of a million-dollar offer to Costa Rica if it would recognize Katanga as an independent nation, and believes further that a New York agent of President Moise Tshombe had a part in the maneuver.

The agent of the rebellious Congolese province, Michael Struelens, reports that the accusation is untrue as to himself and even if the story were true, he can't see why this country should be so concerned over diplomatic efforts of another government.

Lincoln White, State Department press officer, brought the affair into the open in a volunteered statement Wednesday at his news conference, commenting on what he called press reports that "Struelens might have been involved in an attempt to purchase recognition for Katanga."

White declined to name the nation involved or give other details.

The terms in which he spoke, however, made it clear he referred to a report, by columnist Drew Pearson, that the offer was a million dollars, and that the proposition was indignantly turned down.

The story in question did not name those who made the offer. It did, however, discuss Struelens' activities as an information officer for Tshombe's regime.

Struelens, a former Belgian civil servant, replied to White in a statement in New York. "As far as the allegation by Lincoln White pertains to me, personally, it is absolutely without foundation," he said.

"Even if the story were true, which it is not, I cannot understand why the United States would be so concerned about diplomatic efforts made by another government."

Students, commenting on previous discussions of his activities, has contended he acts purely as a Katanga information officer.

Accusations Hurlled at UN by Tshombe

By ADRIAN PORTER

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP)—President Moise Tshombe today accused the United Nations of "odious aggression" in a speech at a meeting of the Provincial Assembly called to consider his agreement to end Katanga's secession from the Congo.

After the president's speech, which took strong exception to two of the agreement's eight parts, the Assembly president announced the matter would be referred to a special commission.

Tshombe said "The United Nations' clumsy intervention under U.S. pressure" in Katanga last month had not helped relations with the central government.

"We did not go to New York to fight the United Nations, but they came here," he said.

He finally asked for a cease-fire "not because we were tired of fighting for our freedom but simply because the Katanga government wanted to put an end to the killings and carnage," he declared.

Only 35 of the assembly members were present.

Nine opposition deputies from the Balubakati party were among those present. There would have been 36 members present, but there was a delay of 90 minutes in opening the session.

The Assembly failed to begin debate on schedule Wednesday when only 19 members showed up. If all seats were filled the Assembly would have 72 members, including 12 appointed chiefs.

Congo President Joseph Kasavubu, in a conflicting move, has called upon the Assembly to meet at Katanga. U.N. aircraft in northern Katanga. Several opposition Balubakati deputies from the north were reported afraid to show themselves in Elisabethville.

In an eight-point pact with Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula on Dec. 21, Tshombe agreed to end Katanga's secession, but later declared the agreement was not binding until ratified by the Assembly.

Arms Buildup in Indonesia Again Starts

By PETER ARNETT

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Indonesia stepped up its arms buildup today off the shores of Dutch-held West New Guinea despite reports that President Sukarno's regime was ready to offer the Netherlands a compromise on the future of the disputed territory.

The army announced that 10,000 veterans of independence fighting against the Dutch are being retrained on Ambon and other islands of the Molucca chain some 150 miles off the western tip of New Guinea.

The announcement closely follows a report from a high government source that Indonesia is willing to promise West New Guinea eventual self-determination if the Dutch agree to let Jakarta take over the territory's administration in the meantime.

Col. Buisiri, military commander of the Molucca area, declared that the issuance of arms to the veterans and their assignment into combat units are preliminary steps to "the march forward to stop the Dutch-created Papuan state from operating and to hoist Indonesia's red and white flag in the territory."

President Sukarno ordered national mobilization last month and said he would invade West New Guinea unless the Dutch handed it over. He gave no indication of an invasion date.

But the high government source reported Wednesday night that Indonesia was prepared to drop its demand for immediate sovereignty over the primitive area and to offer the 700,000 Papuan tribesmen there the right of eventual self-determination.

He said the Netherlands in turn would have to give Indonesia administration of the territory. He called the proposal "the most liberal stand" his government could take.

The source said that the Indonesian shift resulted from pressure from the United States and Australia. Australian administrators the eastern half of the island, the world's second largest.

A Dutch official in The Hague termed the report interesting but said it would have to be communicated through official channels before the Dutch government would comment.

Dutch Premier Jan de Quay on Tuesday dropped Holland's longstanding demand that Indonesia recognize the Papuans' right of self-determination as a condition to negotiations. Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio rejected this overture Wednesday, declaring that Indonesia would negotiate only if the Dutch agreed in advance to transfer control of the territory to his government. He said otherwise Indonesia would proceed with its invasion plans.

Bolling Makes

out of the contest.
"Developments in the last few days convince me that I do not have a chance to win," Bolling told newsmen.

Bolling said he was unable to get solid support in several states with big Democratic delegations.
He estimated that at the time of his withdrawal he had from 70 to 80 sure votes and 30 to 40
"possibles"—not enough to win in a caucus of 250 Democrats.

He said he considered his failure to make a winning race a defeat for House liberals. Bolling said that while he regarded Albert a liberal, the Oklahoma man had "reservations" when it came to legislation dealing with civil rights and oil and gas.

Bolling said he was not a candidate for majority whip to succeed Albert and would not accept that position, considered third in the Democratic chain of command in the House. Rep. Hale Boggs of Louisiana reportedly has the inside track for the post.

Bolling's withdrawal coincided with reliable reports that Democratic leaders, with White House backing or even prodding, had given the go-ahead to re-establishment of a House Democratic steering or policy committee.

A group of liberals known as the Democratic Study Committee has been agitating for creation of a policy committee to give the liberals more of a voice in party decisions.

If created, the committee would serve in an advisory capacity to the Democratic leaders but would have no binding authority. Its chairman presumably would attend the weekly White House meeting of congressional leaders.

School Bus Safety Is Discussed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — School bus safety was discussed today at a meeting of school superintendents and automobile industry representatives at the state Education Department.

About 40 persons attended the all-day meeting which has been an annual event for six years.

J. L. Eidson, supervisor of school transportation, reported that there have been only 24 bus accidents this school year. Four students were injured in these accidents.

The biggest safety problem, Eid-son said, continues to be the failure of many motorists to stop when they meet a school bus which is loading or unloading students. Most drivers stop when approaching a bus from the rear, Eidson said, but many fail to do so when meeting the bus.

Arkansas school busses travel 27 million miles a year and carry about 188,000 pupils, slightly more than half the total school enrollment, Eidson said.

Eidson attributed Arkansas' good safety record to a host of safety features—such as fire extinguishers, shatter proof glass, turn indicators, flashing stop lights and buzzers to warn drivers when the rear door is opened—which have been added to many busses during the past five years.

Marine Chief in Message to Corps

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen.
David M. Shoup, Marine commandant and chief of the Marine Corps, gave his annual word to the Marines today.

Said he, in a message read to his staff and telegraphed to all Marine units around the world:

"The Corps' work was 'passing good' last year; superior marksmanship knocked out some bull's eyes, but for 'a few—Maggie's drawers!'"

(Note to non-Leathernecks:
"Maggie's drawers" is a red flag waved by target attendants in rifle pits to indicate to a shooter that the last round he fired missed completely.)

The clean misses could have represented "bad range estimation on my part" in setting goals,
but he still didn't like them.

Training is not all sitting in a chair, listening to lectures. "Get out into the kinds of geography in which you are likely to fight;
get out into the rain, snow, cold and darkness to where you might have to do battle."

"I recently observed a training lecture in progress in a barracks.
The platoon of Marines which was listening to their instructor talking about guerrilla tactics looked about as enthusiastic as weightwatching women waiting at the skim milk dispenser."

Fifty-plus per cent may satisfy some requirements. "There are those who draw salaries by hating only 333. But for Marines there can be only one goal—100 per cent."

He has "no trouble finding people to handle machines. The problem is to find people who can handle people. Concentrate on Marines. They'll handle the machines."

It is gratifying that increasing command attention is being given to combat intelligence. "However, there are too many of us who seem to hope for success in combat while operating in a blackout atmosphere."

And finally "We will continue to teach fighting, but not hate."

In an interview last fall, Shoup was asked what he thought about intensive troop orientation lectures on communism. He replied that teaching hate is not necessary, that Marines are taught only to fight whatever enemy the commander in chief designates.

President's Talks Public Property

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House said today speeches and statements by the President are public property even though they appear in a copyright book.

Andrew T. Hatcher, assistant press secretary, said the copyright of a forthcoming book containing speeches and statements by President Kennedy will apply only to such matter as the introduction, and annotations. The book is "To Turn the Tide" to be published by Harper & Bru.
on Jan. 15.

Hatcher said Theodore C. Sorensen, special counsel to the President, had reviewed the book and had written the publishers asking that the copyright notice be modified in future editions.

Hatcher said the advance edition reviewed by Sorensen carried the standard copyright.

Hatcher added that he was confident the publishers would do as Sorensen requested in order to eliminate any impression that publication of the President's speeches and statements in a copyright book removed them from the public domain.

The copyright was criticized by
M. B. Schnapper, editor of Public Affairs Press, in an advertisement Wednesday in the Washington Post. He said it infringed on constitutional guarantees of free speech and free press.

Schnapper has waged a campaign to bar copyrights on papers of public officials.

The book includes an introduction by Kennedy and a foreword by Carl Sandburg. It was edited by John W. Gardner, president of the Carnegie Foundations of New York.

tries that Western leaders felt they would be fighting a lost cause if they tried to take the invasion before the General Assembly.

The breaking point could come later this month when the assembly is expected to condemn Portugal for asserted failure to heed an earlier U.N. appeal for major reforms in Portuguese Angola.

In the current assembly session, Portugal was condemned for refusing to give information on nonsent-governing territories, as required by the U.N. Charter.
The vote was 90-3 with only Portugal, South Africa and Spain voting against it. Portugal's Vasco Vieira Garin denounced the action as a move which would "encourage international lawlessness."

One of the byproducts of differences between Portugal and the United Nations has been a growing rift in the Salazar government's relations with the Kennedy administration. While the United States did take the lead in seeking Security Council action in the Goa case, it had voted for the Angola inquiry last spring.
That touched off angry anti-U.S.
demonstrations in Lisbon.

Says Training Will Take Eight Months

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON AP — The two new regular Army divisions are expected to be established by the end of March, but it will take about eight months of intensive training before they can be declared ready to fight.

President Kennedy announced Wednesday he had approved immediate formation of the two divisions, the 1st Armored and the 5th Mechanized Infantry. They will bring the regular Army force to 16 divisions.

Officials said today the term
"immediate" was relative. They noted that certain advance arrangements must be made, including the mustering of a framework of officers and noncommis-sioned officers and housekeeping preparations to receive the troops

Colo.

The Pentagon has ticketed a group of regular armored, infantry and artillery units to become the nucleus for the two divisions.
Together, they total about 10,500 men. At full strength, the new divisions will number about 31, 700 men in all.

The 21,000 soldiers need to fill the divisions' ranks will be draft-ees who have finished eight weeks of basic training. Defense authorities said they do not expect to raise draft calls.

After the new outfits are brought up to strength, they will be put through a cycle of advanced individual training, basic unit training, division drills and field maneuvers. Only then will they be considered combat ready.

A Pentagon spokesman said the Army hopes to have the 1st Armored and 5th Infantry in fighting shape before the end of this year.

Kennedy said creation of the two added regular units will per-

SAUCER PROGRAM DISHED—Army-Air Force program for development of the disc-shaped vehicle, above, is being shelved. The saucer, which was to ride a cushion of air, has been under development by a Canadian firm. Not intended to be a space vehicle, it was intended for troop and supply movement, to carry loads over any kind of ground and beneath the scanning eye of radar. With funds running out, the $7.5 million project is grounded—at least for the present. Change in emphasis on weapons systems is seen as one reason for the move.

SOUND METHOD—Suspended in mid-air on a wire network, Dr. M. R. Schroeder listens to music coming from loudspeakers in Bell Laboratories' anechoic chamber. This is a free-space room which does not produce echoes or reverberations. The music was first processed through a computer which was programmed to act on it just as the floor, walls and ceiling of an imaginary auditorium would. In this way, Dr. Schroeder can tell how music will sound in an auditorium before it is built—a great aid to architects.

CARRIER COMMAND POST—Bristling with odd-looking electronic gear, the bridge of the USS Enterprise is as modern as the vessel it controls. The 85,000-ton, nuclear-powered floating airfield is the largest warship ever built. Her 90 planes can deliver more destruction than all the bombs dropped by all the combat planes in World War II.

State Likely to Take Hand in Dispute

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Governor
Orval E. Faubus said Wednesday he will wait for further developments before acting in a dispute involving a federal order for two Arkansas firms to return their operations to St. Louis.

Faubus said, however, he doesn't believe the government can force Southern Manufacturing Co., of Walnut Ridge, and Blades Manufacturing Co., of Rector, to return to their St. Louis facilities and rehire discharged employees.

Last Friday a federal court upheld a decision by arbitrators that two clauses in contracts between the companies and the International Association of Machinists had been violated.

One clause dealt with seniority and the other was designed to prevent the companies from sending work to their firms so long as equipment and personnel were available in the St. Louis area.

"It sounds pretty far-fetched to me," the governor said.

"The next thing, they will be issuing a court order preventing people from moving their personal

Permit Extension

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The River, Sand and Gravel Co., of Newport, asked Army Engineers
Wednesday for an extension until Dec. 31, 1964 of its permit to dredge sand and gravel on the White River. The company's permit covers a 21-mile area from the Jackson-White County downstream to within 4.8 miles of Agusta.

residence," Faubus added.

On Tuesday, William P. Rock,
executive director of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission, said the ruling appeared to restrain "movement of operations from one area to another."

The companies' attorney, Glen L. Oole, says and appeal will be made of the ruling.

Snow, Rain Dampen the Northeast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow and rain dampened northern sections of the nation from Idaho to the northern Appala-chians today and cold air headed into broad areas from the Rockies to the Midwest and in New England.

It was chilly again in Florida but temperatures were not as low as Wednesday morning's below freezing readings in many areas.

Light snow or snow flurries hit areas from northern Minnesota and the Lake Superior region and in the northern Appalachians.
Light rain fell in northern Idaho and Montana while showers sprinkled parts of eastern Texas.

The coldest weather was in the Rockies and the extreme northern sections of the Great Lakes region. One of the lowest readings was 4 below zero in Sault Ste.
Marie, Mich. Temperatures were in the 20s in Maine and in the 30s and 40s in most other sections of the country, with the 50s in the western Gulf Coast region.

eastern Texas and Southern California.

Miami's early morning reading of 51 compared with 38 Wednesday morning while Key West reported 54. Readings in the 30s again chilled northern sections of the state. But the Weather Bureau predicted daytime readings in the 70s in southern areas and in the 60s in northern sections.

The Weather Bureau issued cold wave warnings for the Dakotas, Nebraska, Minnesota and Iowa and forecast cold air, northerly winds and snow from the Rockies eastward across most of the Plains, the Upper Mississippi Valley, parts of the Middle Mississippi Valley and into the Great Lakes region.

Cold wave warnings also were posted for Maine, Vermont and New Hampshire. But some warmer weather appeared likely over sections of the Middle and South Atlantic Coast states.

Dies in Wreck

HOUSTON, Ark. (AP) — Paul
Ralph Goens, 47, of Conway died Tuesday when his truck burst into flames after running off a gravel road six miles northeast of here.
Goens, a building contractor was burned to death in the truck, officers said.

And emptied the dining room drawers.
Our eight-year-old's giving his brother a shove.
And soon we'll be back to the wars.

Her Father Disapproves of Boy With a Past

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I'm writing to you in complete desperation! My father has seen only one side, his, all my life.

The boy I love did wrong, went to a reformatory and has long since paid for the error of his ways. This was a reformatory which really reformed. My boy friend attends church, has made many friends and is a leader in sports. But, where he is concerned, Father has a closed mind. The boy talked this over with his parole officer for he sincerely loves me. The officer made some suggestions which were followed but the only effect it had upon Father was to make him forbid me ever to see the boy again. I walked out, after being told to stay in my room. When my boy friend heard this he made me go right back home, saying I wasn't doing right in disobeying my father and shouldn't run away from my problem.

We plan to marry as soon as we finish school and I am of age. It hurts when I think of Father opposing our marriage, as he surely will. How can I unsnarl this problem to everybody's satisfaction? —B. E.

Dear B. E.: Your father's fear for you is understandable. Granted that your boy-friend has reformed and is all the better for having touched bottom, nevertheless, he did do wrong in the eyes of the law. Even though he may have paid his debt to so-called society, people won't let him forget. And that is what your father perhaps subconsciously dreads, especially if you have children. However, if your love is strong enough, you may even overcome this problem. For, I sincerely believe that love conquers all.

Dear Helen: We are two girls in the seventh grade and, though the same age of our classmates, feel more mature. Nonetheless, we are too young to date.

We live in a hamlet of about 100 people. There are no shows, no dances, no sports, or even school activities in which to participate. Our parents are very strict and won't permit us to visit neighboring villages, nor may we ish activities which have no appeal for us. Because of this we both cry ourselves to sleep at night and no longer wish to live. —K. and J.

Dear K. and J.: I'm ashamed of you—not wanting to live when the world with all of its exciting potentialities, lies before you. At the risk of being called a harp of a single string, I say life is what you make it. Create your own excitement. Be doers. Help at church, join a Four-H club, learn to make your own clothes. Creativity is the antidote for boredom. And don't belittle books. Reading great books is in itself a thrilling experience. Learn by doing.

Dear Helen: I'm engaged to a girl and plan to be married in a few months. She says she loves me. Suddenly I get the impression I'm second best. Before we met she broke with another boy for whom she admits having great respect. He wanted her to marry him but she refused on the grounds that being still in college he was too young. Recently she heard of his marriage. The news hit her hard. I hesitate to build my life with a girl who still loves an old flame. What would you do? —Faithful Reader

Dear Faithful Reader: Have it out with your girl. This is serious. Either she loves you or she doesn't. For her sake, as well as yours, she should come clean before it is too late. If advisable, show her your letter and my reply.

Christmas Isle May Be Test Site

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Cabinet met today to discuss whether to offer the United States use of Christmas Island for nuclear weapon tests.

Government sources said they expect a positive answer to be sent to Washington within the next few days.

The question of using Christmas Island for a widely expected round of atmospheric tests was raised when Macmillan met President Kennedy in Meandua Dec. 20 and 21.

The President, so far as is known here, has not yet decided whether to resume such tests. But he and Macmillan agreed it would be prudent to prepare for them.

Fire-eater Engaged

LEEDS, England (AP)—Circus fire-eater Priscilla Bird, 34, has announced her engagement to the circus fireman, George Maddocks, 73 years old.

"George has never been called to me professionally," Priscilla said. "He always watches my act, but he doesn't have to. He just likes to see me perform."

Park Visitors Show Increase

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Hot Springs National Park Superintendent Raymond Gregg announced today that the number of park visitors in 1961 increased by 27.3 per cent over 1960.

Gregg said most of the park's 1,266,084 visitors came from Illinois, Texas, Arkansas and Missouri, in that order.

He said that 231,149 persons from all 50 states and 13 foreign countries visited the park during the fourth quarter of 1961.

Chaplin's Wife Expecting 8th

VEVEY, Switzerland (AP)—Charlie Chaplin's wife Oona is expecting the couple's eighth child next summer, it was announced today.

A member of Chaplin's household said the birth was expected sometime in July.

At that time Chaplin will be 73 years old.

His wife, daughter of the late American playwright Eugene O'Neill, will be 37.

They have five girls and two boys.

Boyer Leads Hogs to Win Over A&M

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas opened its Southwest Conference basketball season here Wednesday night and chalked up its ninth straight victory, leading Texas A&M 64-39.

The Porkers, perhaps the surprise of the conference, exchanged the lead three times during the first half with the Aggies before moving to a 26-24 halftime edge.

Carroll Brumfield, a sharp-shooting Aggie forward, took scoring laurels with 21 points. Arkansas scoring was paced by Tommy Boyer's 19.

Jerry Carlton, who led conference scoring going into the game, managed only 12 points, all in the first half.

The victory gives the Porkers a 9-1 season's mark and a 1-0 conference card.

Texas A&M suffered its fourth loss against six victories in bowling to the Porkers. The game also opened the Aggies' conference play.

The Arkansas victory ended A&M's two year domination of the series. The Aggies went into the contest with four straight triumphs over the Porkers.

Carlton, despite his low scoring total, was an effective instrument. All 12 of his points came in the first half, so he was responsible for almost half the porker points at intermission.

Jerry Rogers, Boyer and Jim Wilson took up the slack when Carlton cooled off in the second half. Wilson ended with 11 points, and Rogers with 11. Wilson, at Cherry Valley High school, is a transfer from Mississippi State, which has ruled Southeastern Conference basketball two of the past three seasons.

Shortly after intermission, Arkansas ran up a 14-4 advantage and relaxed momentarily. A&M swiftly closed to 42-47 but Arkansas strung up six straight points to pull out of danger again.

"It was our worst shooting night of the year," said Coach Glen Rose. "But our defense, free throw shooting and rebound play took up the slack for us."

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar period as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

Henderson Wins, Harding Loses

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Only two Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball teams were pitted Wednesday night and both games were with non-conference foes.

Henderson had little trouble walking over Little Rock University 90-48 at Little Rock but Harding bowed to Union University of Jackson, Tenn., 65-34 at Seacrest.

The Reddies scored four men score in double figures, led by Sammy Barker's 19 points. Henderson held a 44-39 halftime margin and increased its lead steadily in the second frame.

Harding was held scoreless for the first three minutes of the second half in bowing to Union. Otis Griffin sank 22 points to pace the Tennessee victory and Steve Smith led the Browns with 14 points.

TIE PINS—Mrs. Venice Pelton shows a few of the pins she bagged to tie the women's four-game world record. The Cleveland bowler's score in capturing the Cleveland All-Star qualifying test was 992. Her games of 235-255-233-269—for an average of 248—equalled the high set earlier in 1961 by Janet Holm of Chicago. That's spilling 'em.

Baylor Out, Lakers Can Still Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Even without Elgin Baylor, the Los Angeles Lakers still can beat the Philadelphia Warriors in the National Basketball Association.

"The Lakers, playing their first game without their high scoring star who was inducted into the Army on Tuesday, nipped the Warriors 124-123 Wednesday night at Los Angeles. It was Los Angeles' sixth victory in nine games.

With Philadelphia and wound up their season's series.

In a doubleheader at Detroit, the Cincinnati Royals thumped the New York Knicks 122-111 and the Pistons bowled over the Boston Celtics 112-103. The other teams were idle.

Jerry West took up the scoring slack for the Lakers with 44 points and teammate Rudy Larusso clipped in with 33.

LSU to Fight Academy for Dietzel

By ED TUNSTALL

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — The big pull came from the South today in the tug of war between Louisiana State University and the Army over the football coaching services of LSU's Paul Dietzel.

Tom Dutton, a member of the LSU board of supervisors which hires and fires football coaches, said he would ask the board to take legal action against Dietzel if he asked to be released from the remaining four years of his $10,500 a year contract.

There were reports from West Point that Dietzel had asked the board to meet to consider such a request. Not so, said Dutton. The board has not been asked to meet.

As for Dietzel—the 38-year-old coach who guided LSU to the national championship in 1956 and to three bowl games in the last four years—well, he wasn't saying anything.

"My only comment, for what it's worth, is no comment," he told The Associated Press Wednesday night. He would neither confirm nor deny (1) if he had asked the board to meet (2) if he had been approached by military academy authorities or (3) if he would fly to New York this week to confer with Army officials.

The Army fired Dale Hall several weeks ago. West Point athletic authorities apparently felt that Dietzel, a one-time aide to former Army Coach Earl (Red) Blaik, was the man to replace Hall.

The reported Army offer is a five-year contract calling for $20,000 yearly.

Faithful Fan Is Rewarded

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. (AP) — A football fan who has missed a Williams College home game in half a century has been given a gold admission pass to all home games.

Nelson W. Domin, 67, began his remarkable record in 1902. He was recovering from an operation on one occasion and confined to bed. But he was able to watch the game through the bedroom window of his home, which overlooks the football field.

Texas Tech Launches Bid Successfully

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas Tech launched its bid for a championship repeat with a 77-66 victory over Texas Wednesday night but Arkansas was equally impressive as it knocked over Texas A&M 64-59 in the other Southwest Conference basketball opener.

Arkansas was running its winning streak to nine straight and beating the team that was a pre-season favorite for the title. The Razorbacks lost their first game of the season to Kansas but since then have taken eight straight intersectional decisions and now have won their first conference test.

Tech had little trouble beating Texas, with the Longhorns leading only once 5-4 early in the game. But Harold Hudgens, the giant Tech center, scored three straight baskets to wipe that out and the Red Raiders were 14 points to the good at halftime.

Texas never could cut the lead to fewer than 10 points. Roger Henning slipped in 18 points to lead the Red Raiders while Hudgens had 17. John Heller topped Texas with 15.

A roaring crowd of 9,500 turned out for the game at Lubbock.

The Arkansas-Aggie tilt was a close one all the way with the Aggies leading early but Arkansas pushing to a 26-24 edge at halftime. The Razorbacks couldn't quite handle Carroll Brumfield of A&M, who scored 21 points, but they took care of the others.

Tommy Boyer led Arkansas with 19 points but Jerry Carlton, the conference's leading scorer, was held to 12.

A crowd of 5,000 saw the game at Fayetteville.

The other four members of the conference swung into action tonight, with Southern Methodist playing Texas Christian at Fort Worth and Baylor tangling with Rice at Waco.

Two Share Hockey League Spotlight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two heralded youngsters—Dave Keon of Toronto and Bobby Hull of Chicago—shared the National Hockey League spotlight Wednesday.

Keon, a 21-year-old center who was rookie of the year last season, scored two goals in the Maple Leafs' 3-1 triumph over the league-leading Montreal Canadiens. Hull, the league's top scorer two years ago, celebrated his 23rd birthday with a goal and an assist as the Black Hawks edged the New York Rangers 2-1.

With Keon and Hull leading the way, their clubs picked up ground in the races for first and third places. Runnerup Toronto moved to within two points of Montreal while Chicago closed to within three points of the third-place Rangers.

Crippled Ship in For Repairs

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The freighter Catalina is headed for repair docks in Tampa today after being towed into Tampa Bay with water leaking into her engine room.

The crippled ship was in danger of sinking in the Gulf of Mexico during the past three days when 10 feet of water flooded her boilers, shutting off power.

Villanova Has No Trouble in Winning No. 12

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The battle of the unbeaten wasn't.

Villanova bent Seton Hall in a walk. Or, more appropriately in the case of the fleet Wildcats, a run.

Racing and driving, showing off their quick-handed defenders in their aggressive zone, the Wildcats blitzed the Pirates Wednesday night 99-67. Now there are just three undefeated major college basketball teams—Villanova (12-0), Ohio State (10-0) and Mississippi State (9-0).

Seton Hall, winner over four lesser opponents, was expected to face an unhappy moment of truth at the Villanova Field House against the nationally 5th-ranked Wildcats — and the issue was never in doubt.

Another member of the top 10, 8th-ranked Duke, smothered Penn State 55-35 behind the gunning of Art Heyman and Jeff Mullins. But 10th-ranked Bowling Green needed a pair of clutch free throws in the waning seconds to shade Western Michigan 73-72 in the Mid-American Conference opener.

Heyman's 36 points and Mullins' 24 were more than the Blue Devils needed against Penn State as they ran their record to 9-1. Bowling Green (9-1) and Western Michigan played a corker, with the lead changing hands seven times in the first half and 11 in the second. The vital foul shots were by Howard Komives, bringing a 72-72 tie, and Nate Thurmond's winner with two seconds to play.

Defending champion Texas Tech and the club that appears to be its toughest rival for the title, Arkansas, started off the Southwest Conference season with victories. Tech took the lead for good in the early stages and the Red Raiders cruised over Texas 77-66. Arkansas won its ninth in a row beating Texas A&M 64-59.

Dayton (9-1) came from behind in a 64-48 runaway against Xavier (Ohio). Marquette, swamped in its last previous outing, rebounded by surprising DePaul 75-6.

Three teams, members of the elite 10 before losses skidded them out, were winners Wednesday night. West Virginia, back in the neighborhood confines of the Southern Conference, blasted Virginia Military 101-79. Providence came out of a 4-game losing slump with a 56-54 decision over Brown. And St. Bonaventure, loser of two of its last three, overcame Belmont Abbey 75-68.

Golf's Great Hit Money Trail Today

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Golf's greatest players hit the rich money trail today in a $5,000 professional-celebrity prelude to the $45,000 Los Angeles Open.

The 72-hole main show gets underway Friday in this 36th annual winter classic as the pros launch a $2 million dollar tournament campaign for 1962. The setting again is the Rancho Municipal Golf Club which has par 36-35-71 for its 7,000-yard course.

Rancho is not regarded as particularly tough. But one of the best golfers in the world, Arnold Palmer, can eye one hole as extra menacing.

It was on the ninth hole in the first round a year ago that Palmer knocked four balls out of bounds and wound up with an atrocious seven-over par 12.

The former National Open and Masters champion is back again, along with the man who beat him out of the 1961 money-winning title, Gary Player of South Africa.

Lighter Side of the News Around U. S.

By DICK WEST

United Press International

WASHINGTON (UP) — According to a magazine article I read a few weeks ago, the only certain way to achieve immortality is to get your name on a commercial mailing list.

It pointed out that forever after you have departed this vale your name will continue to appear on envelopes containing catalogs, brochures, posters, dodgers, fliers and other forms of advertising matter.

These will be duly dropped by the postman into somebody's mailbox, most likely at an address you occupied in your early life. Thus your name becomes perpetuated, as surely as if it had been engraved on a statue.

Keeps in Touch

I find this philosophic view of the mailing list phenomenon wonderfully comforting. It keeps me spiritually in touch with the U.S. Marine officer from whom I bought my house seven years ago. Every now and then, the day's mail will bring in a batch of soap coupons or a magazine subscription offer posted in his name.

I only met him once, but I always turn my eyes toward the shores of Tripoli and wonder where fate has taken him.

It pleases me to think that something similar is happening at all of my previous abodes. Whoever is occupying those premises now will never be able to forget me, even though they never knew me.

Having achieved mailing list immortality in at least four states, I am unable to share the indignation of an electrical appliance distributor in Webster Groves, Mo.

Writes to Congressman

He wrote to his congressman, Rep. Thomas B. Curtis, complaining that he had received 24 letters of solicitation on a single subject, apparently as a result of duplication in the mailing lists maintained by the U.S. Department of Commerce.

The congressman in turn fired off a letter to Commerce Secretary Luther Hodges, deploring the incident as an "obvious waste of postage, stationery and manpower."

"It points to a bureaucratic operation that is so tangled in red tape that no system exists for setting up proper address lists or keeping address lists, once established, up-to-date," Curtis wrote.

Curtis praised his constituent for calling attention to such inefficiency. Too often, he said, people "simply swear softly (and) throw the material in the waste basket."

He may have a point there, but I rather envy the constituent. Not everyone is fortunate enough to be immortalized and inundated in one mailing.

Jan. 23 Date for Man in Orbit

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — An attempt to rocket the first American astronaut, John W. Glenn Jr., into round-the-world orbit has been delayed at least a week, until Jan. 23 at the earliest, it was learned today.

The shot had been scheduled for Jan. 16. Reliable sources reported the postponement is the result of trouble with the Atlas booster rocket, exact nature of which was not disclosed.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration had no comment when asked about the delay. The agency has never announced a definite date for the shot, saying only that it would be attempted early in 1962.

But it was generally known here that Jan. 16 was the selected launching date. NASA earlier had hoped to achieve manned orbit flight in December. But officials decided to take pressure off the launching crew and put it off until after New Year's Day.

Groundbreaking at Forrest City

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — Ground breaking ceremonies for two new buildings at the Forrest Memorial Hospital will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday.

The two buildings will cost a total of $800,000. Hospital Administrator Robert McCusick said the overall 145-bed facility will be the largest of its kind between Memphis and Little Rock.

A new hospital wing will provide 40 additional beds, and a separate nursing home will provide another 40 beds.

Pulaski Group To Re-file

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Pulaski County's delegation in the Arkansas House planned to file for new terms in a group late today.

Rep. Gayle Windsor filed Tuesday, but he planned to accompany his seven colleagues for today's filing, a spokesman said.

Pulaski County has eight of the 100 state representatives. No other county has more than four.

The Woman's World by Lady Pepperell

Twenty Million Frenchmen

Interior decorators in this country, by and large, still seem to feel that twenty million Frenchmen can't be wrong when it comes to furnishings.

Our return to elegance in home decoration started with Europeans who saw the big shows in New York this year. They were both flattered and dismayed that America cared to imitate so widely.

We excel, however, in "modern." Although the Scandinavian wave has had a great influence, American designers have some truly inventive pieces. These are mostly accepted by the young. Even bedding has a "modern" look. One of our percale sheet designs, Northern Lights, was designed by George Jensen and seemed beautifully "at home" in Danish design surroundings.

Probably the new preference for "elegance" is a reaction to the more austere modern designs. Nothing could be more feminine than a French provincial bedroom. Sheets now have deep turn-back hems, as much as eighteen inches of flared border. The favorite Bridal Rose will be available in this style in time for Christmas.

Women who champion early American and Colonial bedrooms will find sheets and go-together blankets in these styles, too. Two particularly charming patterns are the Antique Rose, a sampler design, and Star Patchwork, which has a quilted look. A shower of multi-pastel stars on white.

A pretty bed is a great contributor to sweet dreams.

Frisco Hotel Fire Claims One Victim

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — One man lost his life today as fire swept through the upper floors of the Hale Hotel in downtown San Francisco.

At least two residents of the five-story hotel were reported in serious conditions from burns and smoke inhalation.

The flames, which flared through some upper windows, were subdued quickly as nearby fire-fighting equipment raced to the scene.

Heavy smoke continued to pour from the building as firemen went through corridors seeking anyone who might have been trapped.

The Hale is just a few doors away from the site of the Thomas Hotel fire that took 20 lives last Jan. 6.

Weather Hurts Florida Crops

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Ice formed on bean fields and 19 cars piled up on a foggy highway in the Miami area today as winter slipped Florida for the third time since Christmas.

Miami's airport temperature skidded to 36 degrees, a record low for the date. The previous low was 49 degrees in 1957. Miami Beach also recorded a record low of 45 degrees, 8 below the 1957 mark.

Growers sent up airplanes to spray crops with sulphur dust and kept their smudge fires burning. Sulphur dust raises the temperature and the planes stir up cold air hugging the ground.

Despite the freezing temperatures—a low of 31.4 degrees was reported—growers said beans, squash, strawberries and tomatoes came through in fine shape.

Padre Island, off the coast of Texas, has the longest reach of undeveloped seashore in the United States outside of Alaska.

Vegetables, Pork Offered at Markets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pork loins and frozen vegetables will head many housewives' shopping lists this weekend.

The emphasis on frozen vegetables comes from the twin effects of heavy stocks of frozen varieties and some damage caused by last week's sub-freezing temperatures in parts of Florida's winter vegetable belt. Snap beans, cucumbers, eggplant, peppers and squash were most severely affected, officials said, although leafy vegetables and lettuce also were hit to some extent.

Early season estimates were that a tenth more vegetables would be processed this year than last including canned as well as frozen. Warehouse stocks of frozen vegetables Nov. 1 came to a whopping 1.3 billion pounds, a record.

Best buys among fresh vegetables, produce men say, are broccoli, cabbage, lettuce (reflecting heavy shipments from California, Arizona and Texas), potatoes, carrots, celery and onions. In some sections, good buys also can be found among eggplant, spinach, rutabagas, beets, sweet potatoes, parsley, peas, tomatoes, endive, escarole, radishes and cauliflower.

Broiling and frying chickens also will be featured at meat counters in the Northeast and Midwest, reflecting still abundant supplies of the birds. Midwest shoppers will find turkeys still at low prices, provided they haven't had their fill over Christmas and New Year's Day.

Bacon is another featured item in the Northeast and Midwest, while sausage and spare ribs are at special prices in the southeast.

Florida citrus supplies were largely undamaged by the recent cold weather, government experts said. Grapefruit and oranges remain plentiful, however, with price tags rated the best buy list.

Apples and lemons also are outstanding buys in most areas, with bananas, cranberries and avocados featured in other places.

Granddaughter of York in Spotlight

PALL MALL, Tenn. (AP) — A granddaughter of Sgt. Alvin C. York, the fightingest man of World War I, steals some of the spotlight from her famous old grandpa today.

Mary Elizabeth York, 18, will be inducted into the Women's Air Force in a special ceremony at the bedside of the Tennessee mountain man who won the Medal of Honor for his legendary exploits.

"I hope I can make grandpa as proud of me as I am of him," says the girl, who is called Goldie by her friends.

York, now 73 and partially paralyzed as the result of a stroke, asked to witness the induction ceremony. The Air Force agreed to hold it in his modest home in the rolling Tennessee hills.

Meals for Millions

WASHINGTON (AP) — George McGovern, Food for Peace director, says he is shooting for a program that will provide meals for 500 million children overseas within five years.

McGovern, a presidential assistant, said he hopes the Food for Peace program involving surplus U.S. foodstuffs can be expanded to reach that figure. Most of the youngsters would be in non-Communist Africa, Asia and Latin America, he said.

3 Negroes Get Life for Rape

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Circuit Judge William J. Kirby pronounced formal sentences of life imprisonment today on three young Negroes who were convicted of rape of a 16-year-old white girl.

The sentences were set by a racially-mixed jury which heard trial of the three—Raleigh Williams, Troy Alexander and Marvin Aaron Hammond, each 17—last November.

Kirby allowed 45 days for filing of a defense motion for a new trial, a necessary preliminary to a state Supreme Court appeal.

The girl said she was attacked last March 11 after she and a boy companion parked on a North Little Rock lane.

Spa Negotiations Are S resumed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Negotiations between representatives of the National Rejectionists Co. plant at Hot Springs and striking union employees were resumed here today.

The two sides met with federal mediator Charles Wheeler.

Wheeler said after the conference had been under way several hours that he had nothing to report. He said the meeting was still going on.

The strike started Dec. 5 after management and the United Steelworkers were unable to agree on wage and other contract matters. National Rejectionists manufactures coin-operated vending machines.

Warns About Businesses Overseas

By JESSE BOGUE
UPI Financial Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — One of the latest studies on the importance of overseas business to major United States corporations shows some impressive figures, but sounds a mild warning to companies which may be contemplating a foreign venture.

Prepared by McKinney and Co., Inc., international management consultants, they study analyzed information from 100 major U.S. industrial corporations on trends of their operations at home and abroad and how much money could be made. The 100 companies, together represent 40 per cent of the total investment overseas by U.S. companies.

Marvin Bower, managing director of the company, commented that data showed investments outside the U.S. have provided a higher return than domestic investments.

"However," he wrote, "the survey data also suggest a note of caution on further overseas commitments. The rate of profitability abroad has in the past been high enough to permit a wide margin of error."

"The profit rates abroad are falling off and as the margins narrow, decisions will have to be made on the basis of much more sophisticated analysis than heretofore has been applied in many cases."

A wide range of return on investment was shown. A quarter of the firms showed a return of more than 25 per cent; but 17

Colorful Kitchens

by BEATRICE WEST
Color-styling Consultant

An attractive window treatment, with just the right shade, can be the focal point of a well-decorated kitchen. Watch for these new ideas in window shades: fabrics that admit light but keep out glare; shades that pull either way, up from the bottom or down from the top; and pleated or accordion-fold shades. Then too, you can now have shades custom-made from your favorite decorating fabric.

Color Appliance Corporation reports copper-tone, white, and stainless steel are popular choices for gas appliance colors. They're wise selections because their natural tones blend with a variety of kitchen color schemes.

Modern kitchens are decorated just as well as other "living" areas in the home. So we're not surprised to learn furniture manufacturers are now offering kitchen cabinets that look like furniture.

Speaking of cabinets, a recent survey indicated birch is still the most popular choice for wood cabinets, with darker walnut gaining ground.

A wide range of return on investment was shown. A quarter of the firms showed a return of more than 25 per cent; but 17

Terrorism in Algeria Kills 21

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP) — At least 21 persons were killed and a like number wounded in a sharp upsurge of terrorism in Algeria today.

Six Moslems were killed by European youths in Oran, in Western Algeria. The killings in Algeria's second largest city occurred after a Moslem terrorist seriously wounded a pregnant Jewish woman, authorities said.

The terrorist was stabbed to death on the spot by a European. Meanwhile on one of Oran's main streets, a band of European youths killed four Moslems who were left sprawled on the pavement. Another Moslem was stabbed to death in another part of town.

Earlier, eight Moslems and seven Europeans were killed in scattered terrorist actions throughout the territory.

Nine persons were killed and scores wounded in terrorist attacks Tuesday.

Europeans, who want to keep Algeria French; and Moslems, who want independence, are responsible for the terrorist attacks, which have stepped up recently.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — A high Vatican prelate said today that Fidel Castro and certain officials of his regime have fallen under automatic excommunication. Archbishop Dino Staffa, a leading expert on canon law in the Vatican secretariat of state, said excommunication had been incurred by Castro and all Cuban officials responsible for "impeding and imprisoning" Roman Catholic bishops in Cuba.

A well-informed Tunisian weekly, Jeune Afrique, said there are strong chances for a cease-fire agreement in Algeria in the near future.

Sensational Party Burgers

Seasoned to perfection with a tasty combination of bottled barbecue sauce and white wine, these juicy beef burgers are a welcome change from traditional holiday foods. Shaped into large or party-size patties, they are broiled in the kitchen range and served sizzling hot with additional barbecue sauce. From their aroma and barbecue flavor, you'd think they were cooked over an open pit of charcoal embers.

Barbecued Party Burgers

1 pound ground beef 1/2 cup White Wine
1 teaspoon salt Marinade and Basting Sauce (about)

Combine beef, salt, and 2 tablespoons of the sauce; mix lightly. Gently shape into 4 patties, each about 1/2 inch thick. Place on rack in broiling pan. Brush generously with sauce. Broil 3 or 4 inches from heat for 3 minutes. Turn meat patties, brush with remaining sauce, and broil 3 minutes longer. Serve with additional sauce, if desired. Makes 4 servings. If desired, shape into smaller patties to make 8 party-size burgers.

White Wine Marinade and Basting Sauce: Blend 1 1/2 cups all-purpose barbecue sauce, 1 clove crushed garlic, 1/4 cup minced scallions, 1/4 cup water, 1/4 cup white wine and 1 tablespoon soy sauce by stirring or placing in electric blender. Makes 2 1/4 cups.

Move to Give Liberals More Voice

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic leaders reportedly have given approval to creation of a policy committee which would give liberal Democrats a greater voice in leadership decisions.

The unofficial decision has cleared the way for harmonious party caucuses next week to select a new speaker and a new majority leader.

As a result, no one is expected to contest the bid of Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts for speaker and Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma for Democratic floor leader. McCormack now is majority leader and Albert is majority whip. Both are in line to move up as a result of the death of Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas.

A Democratic policy, or steering committee, may be headed by Rep. Richard Bolling of Missouri, who is reported to have abandoned his fight for the majority leadership. Bolling declined to say whether he was withdrawing from this fight.

House Republicans have operated a policy committee for years and it meets regularly. But, because there are fewer factions in the GOP in the House, the Republican committee usually is unanimous in its recommendations.

Complications in Tangled Convict Case

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — New complications developed today in the tangled case of Kimble Berry, 24-year-old Greenville convict who claimed he got his freedom so he could pickup the loot from a $519,000 burglary.

Lt. Gov. Paul Johnson, who signed a furlough for Berry, said he could not remember who requested the action.

Berry's family moved quietly from its house at Greenville during the night and left for an unknown destination amid reports his mother might be bound for Massachusetts, where Berry is held as an escaped convict.

A state penitentiary source said most of the loot from the burglary was burned last May the night it was taken from the safe at the W. R. Fairchild Construction Co. at Hattiesburg.

Johnson said he could not remember who asked him to sign a 10-day furlough for Berry last Dec. 5.

Johnson said he would ask Gov. Ross Barnett to investigate the matter and that he felt it must be cleared up for the benefit of the penitentiary and the public.

"I also want it explained for my own satisfaction," he said.

Workers to Return

Star City Housing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Housing Administration announced Tuesday it has authorized $6,000 in planning funds for 30 low rent homes at Star City, Ark. The agency said the funds would be available after signing of preliminary loan contracts.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Some 300 idles employees of U.S. Time Corp., laid off since December, are expected to return to their jobs this week. F. J. Orntas, general manager of the Little Rock plant, said others among the 900 laid off are expected to return later this month with the remainder by early summer.

TIPS FOR SAVING TIME

THE STUDENT

Nobel Peace Prize winner Ralph Bunche learned German in record time — by passing lessons on his den walls! Post memos on the mirror, under your glass desk-top, any place where they'll catch your eye.

Carry a book with you on any trip that might give you a spare 10 minutes scientist Dr. Harold B. Ritchey, President of American Rocket Society, suggests. Time spent waiting for the dentist or barber — or riding on buses or trains can be used constructively.

Instead of studying in a long tiring session, divide your study into several shorter periods, with a period for each specific phase of the subject at hand, advises Donald Caverly, V.P. in charge of Engineering for General Time Corporation. You'll feel better, learn more and retain it longer.

Bipartisan Aid Sought by Kennedy

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy plans to sit down with leaders of both parties early next week to seek bipartisan support for some of the major proposals he will lay before Congress.

Chief topic at a breakfast now being arranged by the White House will be the President's forthcoming request for broad executive authority to negotiate tariffs in dealing with the European Common Market.

Kennedy hopes for Republican as well as Democratic backing for this program. He also wants to enlist broad support for foreign aid, an issue sharpened by developments in India and the Congo.

The President apparently feels, too, that there is some basis to believe that he can get some Republican aid in his efforts to get Congress to approve a program of medical care for the elderly, financed through the Social Security System.

Kennedy's move to bring the Republicans in for a deal indicates that, despite the approaching congressional elections of November, he would like to avoid a cat-and-dog political fight in the new session of Congress.

House Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana has given no sign that he would be a party to any peace pact with the Democrats.

Even if the President gains some bipartisan support, Sen. Robert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., predicted in an interview that the biggest fight of the new session will come over the international trade program.

Humphrey, the assistant Senate Democratic leader, served notice that he is not satisfied with the way things are going now in American dealings with the Common Market nations.

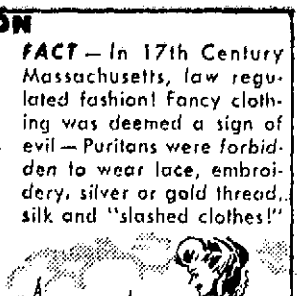

"I don't think the State Department experts are protecting the

Facts, Fads and Fancies

FASHION

FACT — In 17th Century Massachusetts, law regulated fashion! Fancy clothing was deemed a sign of evil — Puritans were forbidden to wear lace, embroidery, silver or gold thread, silk and "slashed clothes!"

FAD — The "chopines" or shoes on stilts worn by fashionable ladies in 16th Century Venice to keep their dainty feet above the muddy streets became a fad throughout Europe! Lady's shoes were often so high she couldn't walk without assistance!

FACT — Some fashions just do not change. Four Roses has been the refreshment favorite of three generations of well-dressed Americans.

FANCY — It was fashionable for the men of Ancient Egypt to wear rings, necklaces, and other trinkets. The image of the "sacred beetle" — symbol of immortality — was carved into the stones of the jewelry to assure the wearer health and long life!

JFK Visit to Russia Talked

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — A possible visit of President Kennedy to the Soviet Union was discussed in the Soviet-American talks on Berlin in Moscow Tuesday, Tanjug, the official Yugoslav agency, quoted informed circles in Moscow.

The same sources also claim U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson's mission is not limited to examining the diplomatic atmosphere in the Berlin dispute but his instructions from Washington contain larger authorization, Tanjug said.

Same License

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mrs. Edson L. Bishop, vice chairman of the National States Rights Party, received a numerical surprise Tuesday when her 1962 license plates proved to be the same as her 1961 tags. Mrs. Bishop said she didn't ask for any particular number.

agricultural interests of this country," he said. "The French and the Germans are getting together on proposals to keep U.S. exports out of the market. Our farmers are getting dealt out."

Humphrey said that products which may be shut out of the Common Market unless some steps are taken swiftly, include rice, vegetable oils, feed grains, wheat, citrus and poultry. He noted that U.S. exports of farm products to Western Europe reached $2 billion last year.

In another interview, House Majority Leader John W. McCormack, D-Mass., said he expected early congressional action on Kennedy's tariff proposals.

The Road to the Snail

THE STORY: Dennis Campbell has decided that if he wants a road to his Spanish villa, The Snail, he must build it himself. However, his servant girls consider it an insult if he does not allow them, and their boy friends to work on it.

Chapter X

I was ready to leave when I saw Commodore Shapely laboring in our direction along the broken winding road. Astonishingly, he was turned out in puttees, old-fashioned leather boots, and a pith helmet. There was a pair of huge binoculars slung about his neck.

The Commodore greeted us with a hearty wave. He was beet-red and gasping for breath, but his eyes were bright with a happy kind of excitement. I introduced him to Dennis.

"Hah! The Commodore cried, looking Dennis up and down. Then he whacked him cheerily on the back. 'You're the chap who's going to build the road. Just ram her through, eh?'"

"I haven't given much thought to the problems," Dennis said. "That is, I don't quite know what they are. But I thought if I broke through the crust and collected the rock and smoothed it out—"

Dennis gestured as if he were patting a cake gently with both hands. "—well, I thought that might do it."

The Commodore cried, "Hah! again and whacked Dennis on the shoulders. 'Preposterous! But I admire your guts. You remind me of a fellow I knew on the Kong-ming job.' He unslung his field glasses and put them to his eyes. 'Had a funny way of speaking, I remember. Now let's see.'"

Dennis was smiling with excitement. "You know about roads, I gather."

"Hah! Give me my gang from China and I'd slam a road through these mountains to Gibraltar if you wanted it. We didn't sit on our tails out there. I got orders where to start and where to stop; that's all. And it was just bad luck for anything that got in my way." He looked keenly at Dennis. "Weren't you out in Kong-ming?"

"I'm sorry, no."

"Exactly. You won't have forgot the rain, I imagine. Six months of it. Ruined the Schuyler gradient completely. That caused some fireworks, didn't it?"

"Sir, I've never been to China."

"Well, well." The Commodore looked thoughtfully at Dennis. "I'm not usually mistaken about the old days. But the resemblance is quite remarkable. He was French, too, and sported a black beard." The Commodore swung his glasses to his eyes and stared about the mountains. "Water, there's our problem," he said, his voice soaring and ringing with excitement, like hunting horns on a frosty morning. "Water puts me on my mettle. I like to tangle with it. When the floods come down these slopes we'll be ready! Shoring's the answer. We'll cut the roadbed with bulldozers and air-hammers. Hah! We'll pack our shoulders with tons of rock, and we'll pound it into place with 10-ton rollers. Then let it come!" The Commodore turned and frowned at Dennis. "Shaved off your beard, I see."

"But I've never worn a beard, sir."

The Commodore smiled cunningly. He whacked Dennis on the back and said, "Parlez-vous French?"

"No—I can't speak French."

The Commodore sighed. "Close resemblance, in any case. Well, let's get to work." He took a ball of twine from his pocket and gave it to Dennis. "You hold this I'll take an end and go down the hill, lay out some rough lines. To-morrow we'll shoot the gradients. After I get some specifications we'll ask for bids from the heavy equipment people. Hah! I'll show them a trick or two on figuring cost. Now just stand still and play out slack. Nothing to it."

The Commodore sighed and continued down the hill. Dennis played out the line in a glum silence.

The Commodore hopped from boulder to boulder, scrambled in and out of pot-holes, until finally his pith helmet looked about the size of a mushroom bobbing down the slope in the orange sunlight. "I'm almost out of twine," Dennis said, watching the rapidly diminishing ball in his cupped hands.

"I don't think it matters," I said.

"No, I suppose not. He means well, I imagine."

The Commodore encountered friends at the foot of the hill. We heard him hail a man and woman, saw him drop the end of the twine, trot after them waving his hand. Then the three tiny figures arms. They stopped to wait for marched sturdily off toward the village.

Dennis began to wind up the ball of twine. "He's gone off for a pink gin, I suppose," he said. "It's not a bad idea. Would you like to join me?"

"No. I've work to do."

If Shelter Is Free Owner Not Liable

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office advised State Civil Defense headquarters today that a non-liability clause should be written into fallout shelter license agreements.

Owen Payne, Jr., civil defense director, had submitted a sample agreement form for the attorney general's approval. The form was drawn up by the federal government, which, in cooperation with state agencies, is surveying public and private properties in search of potential shelters.

The attorney general's opinion said state law provides that persons who volunteer their property for use as shelters without compensation are not liable for personal injuries or property damage resulting from such use and a non-liability clause should be included in the agreement as a matter of routine.

Otherwise, the proposed agreement was approved.

In other opinions issued today, the attorney general's office ruled: That publicly owned hospitals and nursing homes must pay a penalty if they file applications for annual license renewal after Jan. 2, although they are exempt from payment of a license fee itself. The opinion went to Dr. J. T. Herron, state health officer.

That the City of Hartford is not required to pay for printing of ballots ordered by a group which insisted on an election last November after the city council had canceled the election because all incumbents were unopposed. The opinion went to Mayor David C. Marburger.

Accident Fatal

MARSHALL, Ark. (AP) — Joe Dupree, 32, of Clinton died Tuesday when a tire blew out on the truck in which he was riding, causing the truck to strike a bluff and burst into flame. State Police said Dupree was a passenger in the truck driven by Donald E. Carter, 24, of Springdale. The accident occurred three miles north of here on U.S. 65. Carter was hospitalized.

the next 30 years. The contract is part of a procedure under which the City of Humphrey will retire 30 year water and sewer improvement bonds. The opinion went to School Superintendent W. A. Joyner.

That the Jacksonville City Council can repeal an ordinance which created a civil service commission. The opinion went to Commission Chairman Harry K. Dougherty.

That the city marshal at Amity can hire deputies without the approval of the city council. The opinion went to Amity Alderman Parnell Shepherd.

Delightful Treat From Dixie—
Hot Corn Cakes And Coffee

Once again, the griddle sizzles with a warm reminder of the old south. Dixie Corn Cakes are cooking—sweet corn pancakes crisply flavored with crumbled bacon. Next to the griddle, the coffee pot perks, timed to be ready just as the Corn Cakes are scooped onto the plates.

Naturally, Dixie Corn Cakes make an ideal holiday breakfast, the kind that nobody in the household would think of skipping. But if you're partial to Sunday suppers by the fireside, you'll want to serve these wonderful hot cakes some evening when you have a few friends over for a light supper.

Dixie Corn Cakes should arrive, hot off the griddle, with butter melting over them. Then, bring on pitchers of hot maple or apple syrup and steaming cups of coffee. Just be sure the coffee pot doesn't run dry. There's nothing more hospitable than plenty of coffee for everyone as you whittle away at stacks of Dixie Corn Cakes.

Dixie Corn Cakes
1 package (12 oz.) corn muffin mix
2 eggs, beaten
2 cups milk
6 strips bacon, cooked and crumbled
2 tablespoons melted bacon fat
1 cup well-drained whole kernel corn

Combine all ingredients; stir briskly until thoroughly blended. Bake on hot griddle, turning once. Serve with butter and hot maple or apple syrup. Makes about 20 cakes, 4 inches in diameter.

War Over
Berlin Is Less Likely

BERLIN (AP)—East-West war over Berlin appears less likely than a year ago but look for new periods of crisis and tension ahead.

That seems to be the feeling of both Berliners and some Western officials.

Two reasons are heard why war seems more remote than in 1961. One is that Soviet Premier Khrushchev apparently takes more seriously than he did a year ago Western determination to defend West Berlin and its access routes. Khrushchev has withdrawn his deadline for signing a peace treaty with Communist East Germany and has not rattled his missiles recently.

The other reason is that the status quo in Berlin is more bearable to the Communists than the situation that existed a year ago. Then thousands of refugees fled each month, including many technicians, teachers and students were pouring out of East Germany through West Berlin. The satellite regime was threatened with collapse.

The Communists raised their border wall through the heart of the city in August. That dammed the tide of refugees to a trickle, solving their most critical problem.

Some quarters expect new tension over Berlin early this year, particularly if the Communists find the West firmly opposed to concessions in the diplomatic probe now starting.

Some observers believe negotiations over Berlin could be long delayed in starting or break down along the way.

The Communists then could be counted upon to boost tension. The easiest way to manufacture a new crisis would be for the East Germans to harass traffic along the access routes to West Berlin across East German territory, or to interfere further with traffic between East and West Berlin.

Pleads Innocent
to Embezzlement

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Alan C. Springer, former president of the bankrupt Arkansas Business Development Corp., pleaded innocent in Pulaski Circuit Court today to two counts of embezzlement.

Judge William J. Kirby set May 25 for a jury trial.

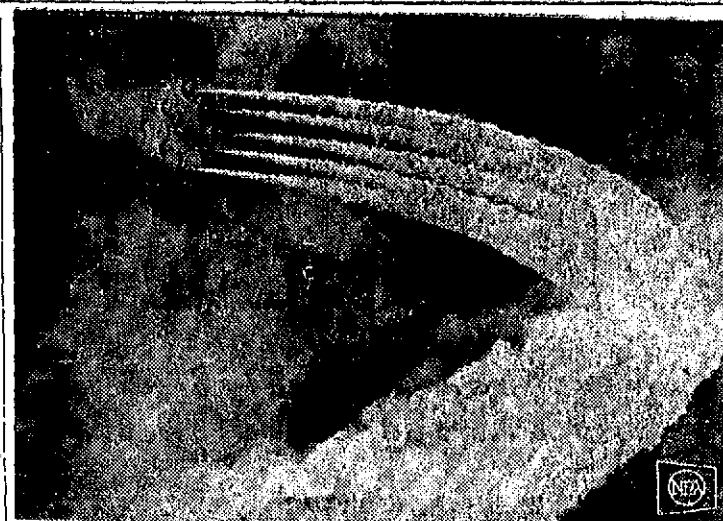

Springer is under a five-year sentence in U.S. District Court at Bismarck, N.D., in a mail fraud case involving Lenders Service Co., a subsidiary of ABDC. An appeal has been taken.

The state court charges alleged embezzlement of ABDC funds.

Springer also is charged in U.S. District Court here with fraud in security sales. He has pleaded innocent to this charge also.

Also summoned to appear were Mortimer M. Caplin, who heads the Internal Revenue Service, and Dr. Frank Stanton, president of Columbia Broadcasting System which showed the film.

Calls Drama
Over-Active
'Hokum'

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Critic

NEW YORK (AP)—"The Captains and the Kings" is a melodramatic Broadway chain-reaction about nuclear naval power. A lot of high-energy excitement flares across the stage of the Playhouse Theater, where the adventure unfolded in premiere Tuesday night. Also evident are traces of over-active hokum.

The superb nautical cast includes Dana Andrews, Charlie Ruggles, Conrad Nagel, Peter Graves and some classy subordinates, all polished to smart trim by director Joseph Anthony.

The plot concerns development of America's first atomic submarine a half dozen years ago. As the tart, dedicated and neglected four-striper who heads the project, Andrews portrays a character parallel in some details to Capt. Hyman L. Rickover—since promoted to vice admiral—who played a prime role in the real-life operation.

Leo Lieberman, a playwright recruit from films and TV, steers ably in the development of characters and in establishing a dramatic focus—the bitter opposition of conservative admirals to change.

With them, he sets up a senator who represents the more deplorable fruits of political opportunism. In this part of sanctimonious hypocrisy, Charlie Ruggles—a vintage image of elderly jollification on stage and screen—appears in off-type casting. The twinkles in his eye belie the venom of his lines.

Nagel, chief spokesman of the established order, and Andrews

U. S. Denies Deal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department has denied that the United States made a deal to help Guatemala gain British Honduras in return for Guatemala's help in last Spring's abortive invasion of Cuba.

The denial was made by press officer Lincoln White Tuesday after reports that Guatemala's President Miguel Ydigoras, in a New Year's eve radio-television speech, had said that in return for Guatemalan help in providing training sites for Cuban invasion forces the United States agreed to use its good offices in settling the Guatemalan-British dispute over British Honduras.

New Atlanta Mayor

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—This Deep South city has a new mayor for the first time since 1942. Businessman Ivan Allen Jr., 50, was sworn in Tuesday night to succeed retiring William B. Hartsfield, 70, who served continuously from 1942.

Attlee Is 79

AMERSHAM, England (AP)—Earl Attlee, convalescing from an abdominal ailment and heart attack, celebrated his 79th birthday in the hospital today.

His wife is in the same hospital in this Buckinghamshire market town, with lumbago. Both expect to be discharged in the next week.

carry the play to a peak of taut drama in the second act when the opposition positions are aired before an austere panel of gold braids.

An unauthorized deep-sea test of the submarine is the means whereby everything is resolved. Logic gives way to histrionics. The truth is still stranger than this kind of fiction.

All That Glitters

When gold-coinage began in 16th century Europe, greedy explorers sought the legendary riches of the New World. With only 1600 men, Hernando Cortez marched against the Aztecs... extracted 1,000,000 gold pieces from Montezuma!

In the 1600's, merchants deposited bulky, easily stolen, gold coin with goldsmiths in return for receipts honored as money. The goldsmiths would then lend the coin to other merchants... becoming the earliest modern bankers!

The first U.S. gold-coinage mint was built in 1792. Though we rarely see gold coin today, the precious metal has many other uses. In high-fashion jewelry and accessories, for example, the beauty and luxury of gold is added through the new Karat-clad Heavy Gold Electroplating process.
